Art in the Parks

Through collaborations with a diverse group of arts organizations and artists, Parks brings to the public both experimental and traditional art in many park locations. Please browse our list of current exhibits and our archives of past exhibits below. You can also see past grant opportunities or read more about the Art in the Parks Program.

Public Art Map and Guide

Find out which current exhibits are on display near you, and browse our permanent monument collection.

View the map

Search Current and Past Exhibits

Date range:

to

Keyword:

Search

Current Exhibits | 2025 | 2024 | 2023 | 2022 | 2021 | 2020 | 2019 | 2018 | 2017 | 2016
2015 | 2014 | 2013 | 2012 | 2011 | 2010 | 2009 | 2008 | 2007 | 2006 | 2005 | 2004
2003 | 2002 | 2001 | 2000

Judith Modrak, Nurturing Tree

October 18, 2025 to October 17, 2026
Stuyvesant Square, Manhattan

Description:
Peace, love, empathy, and kindness are all traits to be nourished and grown. Nurturing Tree embodies these characteristics and pays homage to the Mother Elm Tree who lived on this very spot for over 300 years.

This exhibition is presented by the Stuyvesant Park Neighborhood Association.

Art in the Parks

Art & Antiquities

Art in the Parks Current Exhibits

NYC Public Art Map and Guide

Permanent Art and Monuments

Monuments Conservation Program

Arsenal Gallery

About the Art in the Parks Program

Resources for Artists

Art in the Parks: Highland Park Art Grant

Was this information helpful? Yes No